Forecast For East Midlands
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 0400 on Sunday 29 Aug 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Largely dry with some bright or sunny spells.

Today:
A cloudy start for many places across the region before cloud thins during the afternoon to give sunny spells. Winds freshening a little especially near coasts, where it will feel rather chilly. Maximum temperature 19 deg C (66 deg F).

Tonight:
Cloud returns during the evening and thickens further from the east overnight, perhaps with the odd spot of drizzle by dawn. Temperatures holding up under the cloud cover. Minimum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Monday:
Mostly rather cloudy with the risk of some occasional drizzle, but equally a few brighter spells developing at times too. Temperatures near normal but feeling cool near the coast. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
Mainly fine and dry with variable cloud and a little light rain and drizzle along coastal areas. Pleasant in any sunshine, but cool under the cloud and in the breeze.
